Employment Summary

Hunter, Windsor, Berkshire \ January 2015 - September 2016

My recent long term contract for property marketing agency Hunter involved designing and artworking brochures and marketing collateral for many large-scale developments including Green Park Village and Kennet Island in Reading for Berkeley Homes. I also worked on branding concepts for smaller developments and other property developers.

Really Good & Soul, Abingdon, Oxfordshire \ October 2006 - January 2013

Since graduating I began work as a junior graphic designer for this top gift and greeting card company. My role quickly advanced to a senior position after creating and launching a number of successful card ranges, gift wraps, notebooks and stationery items. My role involved working with a number of boards, finishes and bindings for new products, as well as putting together packaging, catalogues and promotional material for both companies, liaising with printers, production managers and the creative director.

Qooky, Abingdon, Oxfordshire \ October 2008 - January 2013

As head designer I conceptualised Qooky's flagship product, the Qoos, designing all the dolls, tags, point of sale, brochure and promotional material including the website.
